Babylon (featured here), a modular sofa designed by Alessandro La Spada, is upholstered in Nabuk leather with geometrical quilted backrest and profiles in satinized champagne finishing steel. It is paired with a low table in leather and marble between the seats. Designed by Steve Leung, the gorgeous Allure armchair comes upholstered in duotone velvet with cannette work and smooth hood; front feet and frame in satinized black nickel finishing steel. Blondie Armchair Cyborg low table, Milton console and the Princess bed are some other riveting pieces of this range.
